How do I recover my Uphold account? {Official Support}

Account Recovery Steps

Account recovery Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) starts with a password reset via the login screen, which will send a secure link to your registered email address. If you Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) are having trouble with two-factor authentication, we provide an automated recovery process that helps you verify your identity with a government-issued ID. You can Call +1-(805)(401)(0068) follow these prompts on our app, or Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) call us at our office if you have extreme difficulty accessing your profile.

Verification and Security

Security verification +1-(805)(401)(0068) is essential for protecting your funds, so please be prepared to provide updated identification documents if our automated system requests them. We recommend Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) checking your email for any security notifications from our team, and if you are still stuck, Call +1-(805)(401)(0068) call us at Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) for further assistance.

Avoiding Duplicate Tickets

Avoid creating Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) multiple support tickets for the same issue, as this can slow down the recovery process by forcing our agents to consolidate your information. We are Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) here for you, so Call +1-(805)(401)(0068) call us at Call+1-(805)(401)(0068) if your account has been locked and you need a status update on your ticket.
